Compensation Report

1. Introduction

The Compensation Report outlines the principles behind, and the elements of, the remuneration paid to the Board of Directors (“Board”) and the Executive Management Committee (“EMC”) of DDM Holding AG (“DDM”). It details the remuneration paid to the Board and EMC in accordance with the Swiss Ordinance against Excessive Compensation in Stock Exchange Listed Companies (“OaEC/VegüV”). This Compensation Report will be submitted to the annual general meeting of DDM to be held on 23 June 2022 (“AGM”) for a consultative vote.

2. Guiding principles on remuneration

The Board has overall responsibility for defining the remuneration principles of DDM and the proposed remuneration of the Board and EMC. The Board has delegated the preparatory work involved to the Remuneration Committee, which submits its proposal to the Board for review and approval.

The purpose and aim of the Remuneration Committee is to ensure that DDM has access to the competence required at an appropriate cost, and that the existing remuneration scheme has the intended effects for DDM’s operations.

DDM is committed to offer and maintain competitive remuneration which is designed to attract, retain, and motivate talented individuals, along the following principles:

Fair and transparent

Remuneration is clearly structured, transparent and based on the respective responsibilities and competencies.

Competitive and market-aligned

Remuneration levels are competitive and in line with relevant market practice.

Pay for performance

A proportion of the remuneration is directly linked to the achievement of DDM and individual performance goals.

As a general rule, members of the Board receive a fixed remuneration in cash whereas the remuneration for all members of the EMC consists of fixed remuneration and a success-dependent variable remuneration (both in cash).

All members of the Board as well as the members of the EMC have a notice period of up to 12 months. In addition, the employment contracts do not include any severance payments and there are no change-of-control clauses in place.

3. Organization and competencies

Remuneration Committee

In general, the Board is responsible for determining the remuneration for the members of the Board and the EMC, based on the recommendations from the Remuneration Committee. As per the Articles of Association in place, the Remuneration Committee consists of at least two members of the Board to be individually elected by the AGM for a term of office until completion of the next annual general shareholder’s meeting. The determination of such remuneration is subject to final shareholder approval at the AGM.

Within the scope of the Board’s duties, the Remuneration Committee assists the Board by preparing proposals on remuneration, monitoring and evaluating on a regular basis the structures and levels of remuneration for the Board, the CEO and other members of the EMC. The main tasks of the Remuneration Committee, based on a charter issued by the Board, are:

- Prepare the Board’s decisions on issues concerning principles for remuneration and other terms of employment for the Board and the EMC;
- Monitor and evaluate programs for variable remuneration, both ongoing and those that have ended during the year, for the EMC;

COMPENSATION REPORT

- Prepare the Board's proposals to the shareholders' meetings with regard to remuneration of the Board and the EMC;
- Monitor and evaluate the application of guidelines for remuneration, as well as the current remuneration structures and levels in DDM.

Information process between the Board and the Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee holds at least one meeting during the period between two consecutive AGM's. The Remuneration Committee held two meetings during 2021.

Furthermore, the Remuneration Committee gives oral reports to the Board in relation to its work, and makes proposals on matters that require the Board's approval.

Competencies regarding the determination of the remuneration

- the maximum aggregate amount of the fixed compensation of the Board for the following term of office;
- the maximum aggregate amount of fixed compensation of the EMC for the financial year following the AGM;
- the aggregate amount of variable compensation of the EMC for the current financial year

4. Remuneration elementsBoard of Directors

All members of the Board receive cash remuneration for their services as members of the Board.

Furthermore, the Board may grant special remuneration to any member of the Board who performs any special or extra services to or at the request of DDM. Special remuneration may be made payable to a member of the Board who has performed any special or extra services in addition to his ordinary remuneration.

COMPENSATION REPORT

Executive Management Committee

All members of the EMC receive a fixed remuneration for their services as an EMC member. In addition to the fixed remuneration, the EMC members are entitled to variable remuneration (i.e. bonus) which is defined in terms of a percentage of their fixed remuneration. The maximum bonus is determined taking into consideration the duties and responsibility of the recipients. The Board approved a scorecard for the EMC for the financial year 2021 and the allocation of variable remuneration is based on effective results against this scorecard. The scorecard includes parameters such as investments, portfolio performance and financial performance.
