

Workshop: Democracy and Future Generations

16-17 November 2020

Location: Institute for Futures Studies (IFFS), Hölländargatan 13, Stockholm, and online.

Organizers

Göran Duus-Otterström (IFFS) goran.duus-otterstrom@iffs.se

Joe Roussos (IFFS) joe.roussos@iffs.se

Program

Monday 16 November
	09:30-09:45	Welcome and introduction
	09:45-10:45	Gustaf Arrhenius “Democratic Representation of Future Generations and Population Ethics”
	Coffee
	11:00-12:00	Karsten Klint Jensen, “Revisiting my Argument”
	Lunch
	13:30-14:30	Jasmina Nedevska, “Climate Change, Institutions and Future Generations”
	Coffee
	14:45-15:45	Vuko Andric, “Does Democracy Require Reducing the Legislative Power of Present People on Behalf of Future People?”
	Fika
Tuesday 17 November
	09:30-10:30	Katarina Berndt-Rasmussen, “The Non-Identity Problem in Democratic Theory”
	Coffee
	11:00-12:00	Robert Huseby, “Justice and Democracy”
	Lunch
	13:30-14:30	Elizabeth Finneron-Burns, “National Sovereign Wealth Funds and Future Generations”
	Coffee
	14:45-15:45	Ludvig Beckman, “Democratic Legitimacy and Institutions for Future Generations”

Speakers

Elizabeth Finneron-Burns (IFFS/Western) elizabethfinneron@gmail.com

Gustraf Arrhenius (IFFS) gustaf.arrhenius@iffs.se

Jasmina Nedevska (Princeton) jasmina.nedevska@princeton.edu

Karsten Klint Jensen (Copenhagen/Umeå) karsten.jensen@umu.se

Katharina Berndt-Rasmussen (IFFS/Stockholm) katharina.berndt@iffs.se

Ludvig Beckman (IFFS/Stockholm) ludvig.beckman@statsvet.su.se

Robert Huseby (Oslo) robert.huseby@stv.uio.no

Vuko Andric (Bayreuth) vuko.andric@iffs.se

Acknowledgments

The workshop is organized as part of the projects "Climate Ethics and Future Generations", which is funded by Riksbankens Jubileumsfond, and "The Boundary Problem in Democratic Theory", which is funded by the Marianne and Marcus Wallenberg Foundation.