

Claims in Distributive Justice

16-18 June 2021

Institute for Futures Studies (IFFS)

Wednesday 16th June
2.30	Welcome
2.45-3.45	Shlomi Segall (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)	“How it Matters that One (Necessary) Person is Worse Off than Another (Possible) Person”
3.45-4.45	Fiona Woollard (Southampton)	“Rule-consequentialism, Disasters, Demandingness, and Arbitrary Distinctions”
4.45-7.00	Break
7.00-8.00	Richard Arneson (UC San Diego)	"Deservingness, Priority, and Claims"

Thursday 17th June
3.00-4.00	Anders Herlitz (IFFS)	“Fixing claims in distributive theory”
4.00-5.00	Matt Adler (Duke)	“Luck Prioritarianism and Claims”
5.00-5.30	Break
5.30-6.30	Johan Gustafsson (York/Gothenburg/IFFS)	“Future Generations and the Evidential Veil of Ignorance” (with Andreas Mogensen)

Friday 18th June
3.00-4.00	Melinda Roberts (College of New Jersey)	"Claims, Anonymity and 'Moral Accessibility'"
4.00-4.15	Break
4.15-5.15	Daniel Ramöller (IFFS/SU)	“On the possibility of claims in limited trade-offs”
5.15-5.30	Break
5.30-6.30	Mike Otsuka (LSE)	"Prioritarianism, Population Ethics, and Competing Claims"